(3) The committee is authorized to sign the meeting minutes and other documents that constitute the grounds for these minutes.

(4) The committee chairman complies with the provisions of the Law, articles of association and this Internal Directive while chairing the General Assembly meeting.

Duties and powers of the meeting committee

ARTICLE 8 – (1) The meeting committee fulfils the following duties under the supervision of the chairman:

a) To determine whether the meeting is held at the venue mentioned in the invitation or not, and if this issue is regulated in the articles of association, determine whether the meeting venue complies with this stipulation or not.

b) To check whether or not the General Assembly was called in the manner stipulated in the company's articles of association, through an invitation published on website of companies who are obliged to set up a website and in the Turkish Trade Registry Gazette; whether or not this call was made at least three weeks, before the meeting date, excluding announcement and meeting dates; whether or not the call was notified to shareholders who had notified the company of their addresses by submitting their shares or proofs of ownership of shares to the company, by sending, via registered mail, them the newspapers where the date and agenda of and call for meeting was published or to be published, and have these checks recorded in the meeting minutes.

c) Control whether there has been any unauthorized entry to the meeting or not and whether the Board of Directors has fulfilled the duties stipulated in paragraph 2 of Article 5 of this Internal Directive in relation with entry to the meeting or not.

d) To check whether or not the Articles of Association, the share ledger of the company, the Annual report of the Board of Directors, the Auditor's Reports, Financial Statements, the agenda, draft amendment proposed by the Board of Directors if the agenda envisages an amendment to the Articles of Association and letters of approval given by the Capital Market Board and the Energy Market Regulation Board of draft amendment and letter of authorisation granted by the Ministry of Customs and Trade and the draft amendment attached therewith, the list of attendees drawn up by the Board of Directors, the minute of postponement drawn up in previous meeting if the General Meeting was postponed and recalled, and other necessary documents related to the meeting are available at the meeting, and to have these checks recorded in the meeting minutes.

e) Upon objections, or if the need arises, perform an identity check on those who have attended the General Assembly meeting in person or by proxy by signing the list of attendees, and determine that all representation documents are accurate and true.

f) Determine whether the managing directors and at least one member of the Board of Directors, and Independent Auditor are present at the meeting and indicate this issue in the meeting minutes.

g) Direct General Assembly work within the framework of the agenda, prevent divergence from the agenda, excluding exceptional cases stipulated in the Law, maintain order in the meeting and take required measures to this end.

h) Open, close assemblies and sessions and close the meeting.

i) Read whole or part of the decisions, drafts, reports, suggestions and similar documents to the General Assembly or appoint others to do so, give the floor to the people who would like to speak.

j) Carry out voting on decisions to be taken by the General Assembly and inform the results thereof.

k) Oversee whether or not the quorum is met at the beginning and closing of the meeting, and maintained throughout the meeting; ensure that the decisions are taken in compliance with the quorum stipulated in the Law and articles of association.

l) Explain the announcements, made by the representatives specified in article 429 of the Law, to the General Assembly.

m) Pursuant to article 436 of the law, prevent voting by people who are not authorized to vote in decisions referred to in the same article, and ensure compliance with any and all limits stipulated in provisions of the Law and articles of association regarding voting rights and preferred votes.

n) Upon request by shareholders representing 1/20 of the capital, postpone discussion of financial statements and discussion of relevant issues to the meeting to be held one month later, without the need for the General Assembly to take a decision.

o) Ensure that minutes of General Assembly meetings are drawn up, write the objections in the minutes, sign decisions and minutes, indicate affirmative and opposing votes regarding the decisions taken in the meeting, in a manner preventing hesitation on the subject.

q) Deliver the meeting minutes, annual report of the Board of Directors, auditor's reports, financial statements, list of attendees, agenda, motions, voting papers and minutes of elections, if any, all documents related with the meeting, at the closing of the meeting, together with the meeting minutes.

Actions to be taken before passing on to discussing the agenda

ARTICLE 9 – (1) The committee chairman reads the agenda to the General Assembly or appoints someone else to do so. The chairman asks the General Assembly, whether there is a suggestion to change the order of the agenda items or not, and if there is such a suggestion, submits this proposal to the approval of the General Assembly. The order of the agenda items can be changed with the majority of votes of those who are present at the meeting in accordance with quorum specified in the Articles of Association.

Agenda and discussing agenda items

ARTICLE 10 – (1) The agenda of the ordinary General Assembly meeting should include the following issues:

- a) Opening of the meeting and forming the meeting committee;
- b) Reading the Annual Report prepared by the Board of Directors out loud, and discussing and approving it;
- c) Reading the Auditor's Report and Summary of Independent Audit Report for period out loud;
- d) Reading Financial Statements for period prepared by the Board of Directors out loud, and discussing and approving it;
- e) Release of each director from their liabilities;
- f) Determining the manner of using and distributing profits, as well as rates of dividends;
- g) Discussing the amendments to the articles of association, if any.
- h) Discussing other issues deemed necessary.

(2) The agenda of an extraordinary General Assembly consists of items requiring a meeting.

(3) Issues which are not included in the meeting agenda cannot be discussed and decided on, with the following exceptions:

- a) If all shareholders are present at the meeting, items may be added in the agenda with unanimous votes of the shareholders.
- b) Pursuant to article 438 of the Law, request by any shareholder for special audit, regardless of the fact whether it is an item of the agenda or not.
- c) Dismissal and replacement of members of the Board of Directors are considered items related with discussion of financial statements and are directly discussed and decided on, upon request, regardless of the fact whether they are directly related with an agenda item or not.
- d) Even if it is not an agenda item, in the existence of justifiable grounds such as malpractice, inadequacy or breach of the obligation of loyalty, hardship in executing the duties in the company for having memberships in other companies, being a difficult person, or abuse of power, then issues regarding dismissing the members of the Board of Directors and choosing new people to replace them are taken into the agenda at the General Assembly by complying the quorum requirement specified in the Articles of Association.

(4) An agenda item that has been discussed and decided upon in the General Assembly meeting cannot be re-discussed and decided upon, unless this has been decided through the unanimous votes of all those who are present.

(5) Items that are requested to be discussed by the Ministry consequent to an inspection carried out or for any reason whatsoever are included in the agenda.

(6) The agenda is determined by the party which invites the General Assembly to meeting.

Taking the floor

ARTICLE 11 – (1) Shareholders or other attendees, who wish to express their opinions on an agenda item that is being discussed, inform the chairman of the meeting committee that they want to take the floor. The committee announces those people who would like to take the floor to the General Assembly and give them the floor in the order of application. Without prejudice to E-General Assembly rules, the person, whose turn has come to speak, loses his right to do so, if he is not present at the meeting venue at that particular time. Speakers address the General Assembly from the place arranged for this purpose. Speakers may change their order of speech, if they come to an agreement among themselves. If there is a time limit for speakers, the person whose time is up may only continue to speak, if the person to speak right after him grants him his time, counting towards the time limit of that person next in the line. Speech time cannot be extended in any other manner.

(2) Committee chairman may give the floor to the members of the Board of Directors and the auditor, who would like to speak on the issues that are discussed, without observing the order of speakers.

(3) The time limit for the speeches are determined by the General Assembly, upon the proposal of the chairman or shareholders, depending on the volume of the agenda items, number and importance of issues to be discussed, the number of people who would like to take the floor.

(4) In relation with the manner in which shareholders or representatives thereof attending the General Assembly via electronic means pursuant to article 1527 of the Law may express their opinions or suggestions, the principles and procedures stipulated in the said article and sub-regulations shall apply.

Voting and manner of voting

ARTICLE 12 – (1) The chairman of the committee announces the subject to be voted before voting starts. If a draft decision is being voted, this is determined in written and read and subsequently voted. People may ask to take the floor on the procedure of voting only after it is announced that voting will start. If there is any shareholder, who has not been given the floor, although he had applied to speak and this issue was validated by the Chairman, this shareholder uses his right to speak. People may not take the floor on a particular subject, after voting on that subject starts.

(2) Voting on issues discussed in the meeting is carried out by way of showing of hands or standing up or saying yes or no. Votes are counted by the meeting committee. When required, the chairman may appoint a sufficient number of people to assist counting of the votes. Those who have either not raised their hands or stood up and voted no are considered to have given a nay vote and these votes are regarded to have been given against the relevant decision.

(3) In relation with the manner in which shareholders or representatives thereof attending the General Assembly via electronic means pursuant to article 1527 of the Law may use their votes, the principles and procedures stipulated in the said article and sub-regulations are applied.
